NARRATIVE:

Carbal has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include felon in possession of a firearm, escape from a jail by force, weapon/tear gas offense, burglary, vehicle theft, receive known stolen property, perjury, evading police: disregard for safety, identity theft, possess controlled substance for sale, false identification to peace officer, possess switch blade, and fugitive from justice. Carbal has served multiple state prison terms the longest a five (5) year term for possession of controlled substance for sale. Carbal was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 9th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after Carbal absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Carbal qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
